INTERNATIONAL CENTER OF SPIRITUAL AND ANCESTRAL WISDOM

WHO WE ARE

We are a council of indigenous leaders from different traditions around the world dedicated to preserving our ancient heritage and building a better future for all generations to come.

FOUNDING MEMBERS

Adam DeArmon Yellowbird

Co-founder & Executive Director
Foreign Ambassador and Chief Minister for ONAC
OF ICSAW Native American Church

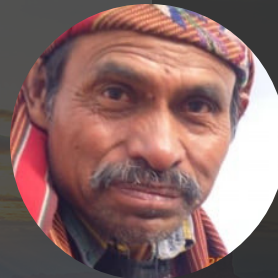

Adam "Yellowbird" DeArmon has worked for the last 20 years with Indigenous Elders around the world to bridge the past with the future through public events, conferences, and personal exchange. His goal has, and continues to be, the synthesizing of the wisdom from our ancestors with modern technology to create a better world. In 2007, Adam was requested by the Continental Council of Indigenous Elders and Spiritual Guides of the Americas to continue their work in South America by bringing it to North America. With the blessings of these Elders, Adam founded and produced the Eagle Quetzal Condor Confederation Gatherings, in efforts to continue their goals through a variety of educational outreach opportunities for all to attend.

Woableza

Co-Founder & ICSAW Grand Chief

Woableza is a great grandson of the famed Dakotah Sioux "Chief Ti Wakan" (Sacred Lodge) who was instrumental in restoring peace between the Dakota and the United States Army during the great Indian wars. He is a follower of the teachings of the famous Lakota Holyman, Chief Tatanka Iyotake (Sitting Bull). Woableza is a Peace Teacher. He teaches about peace found within and peace among people and nations. He teaches about finding peace with Mother Earth and all creation.

Cristobal Cojtí García

Co-Founder & Mayan Daykeeper

The prophecy of the Eagle, Quetzal and Condor was brought forth through the Mayan people. Cristobal and Ixmucané will explain to us the teachings of the Sacred Calendar and how we can use this knowledge to shift our world into a better future for this generation, for our children and for our future

Pedro Pablo Chuc Pech

Co-Founder, Teacher, Author

Counsellor Yucatan Mayan ethnicity 72 years old, and is a member of the Continental Council of Indigenous Elders and Spiritual Guides since 1995. Co-author of Mayan- Spanish bilingual books for students of elementary school where he worked for 35 years. Currently he has a Maya Cultural Center where reading and writing works of the Mayan language including sacred mathematics and writing hieroglyphic. He also receives groups to share Mayan knowledge in the Mayan land.

Juan Gabriel Apaza

Co-Founder, Spiritual Elder of Peru

Juan Gabriel Apaza Lonasco is a respected wisdom-keeper of the Q'ero Nation of Peru. Known as the last living descendants of the Inka bloodline, and the keepers of the coca wisdom, the Q'ero still follow the ancient traditions of their ancestors by paying homage to the Mother Earth (Pachamama) and the Apus (mountain guardians) through traditional "saminchay" fire ceremonies. .. His dream is to build the Tawantinsuyo Eco-Temple in Peru to encourage indigenous coalitions at a global level.

Annette Moody

Heritage & Sacred Site Stewardship

Annette moved to Arizona in 2012 after accepting a position working for Indian Health Services, Department of Health and Human Services. She worked supporting the Native American medical clinics in Whiteriver, AZ, Peach Springs, AZ, San Carlos, AZ and Fort Defiance, UT. In 2014, Annette founded a healing center in Cottonwood, AZ, focusing on holistic healing. At that same time, she established a program at the Verde Valley Medical Center in Cottonwood, Reiki for Veterans. Annette is of Apache lineage and has always sought out places that capture the essence of ancestral wisdom.

Abby Kojala

Website Development Director

My areas of expertise are web design, social media, email marketing, and enhanced web presence. I create websites and marketing materials that express the essence, spirit, and heart of each business/business owner I work with. I help my clients market their high-quality offerings to those who need and seek them by exposing the unique personality of each business. I strive to lead by example in working joyfully and living an abundant & fulfilled life.

Ashley 'Willfire' Kulik

Marketing & Development Director

Over the past 7 years, Ashley has dedicated her career to mentoring and launching over 80 companies with impact. Her specialty is Strategic Planning, Business Development, and Creative Design & Brand Marketing. In 2013, she was an inaugural scholar at Watson University, where she studied Social Entrepreneurship & Transformative Action. In 2016, she co-founded an entrepreneurship accelerator program Dream Tank, a safe place where kids can build real-world projects around their dreams. Ashley deeply believes that others finding their unique service is the success of us all — and will pave the way for the future generations to come.

THE NEED

SUPPORTIVE ALLIANCES

Stronger communication between indigenous communities and governmental agencies

ENVIRONMENT

The stripping of natural resources impoverishes the land we depend on for sustenance and destroys sacred sites that upsets ecological balance

EDUCATION

Rise of current generations losing interest in learning original practices that are key to cultural preservation and generational knowledge transfer

A PLAN

Many grassroots organizations and indigenous groups know the needs of their community yet are reliant on outside funding sources versus self-sustainability

THIS LEADS US TO OUR MISSION...

OUR MISSION

REMEMBERING OUR PLACE OF ORIGIN.

The International Center of Spiritual and Ancestral Wisdom (ICSAW) is an organization that is dedicated to preserving ancients' wisdoms and traditions of indigenous cultures throughout the world. ICSAW works on behalf of indigenous communities of North, Central, and South America and stands as the central organization by which all of its international projects are supported under. We bring awareness to empower both indigenous and non-indigenous brothers and sisters to sustain their communities.
